

We are recruiting!

Vacancy: Head of Partnerships and Communications

Hours: 21 hours per week (flexible, mostly home-based)

Salary: £20,051.01 (FTE: £33,418.35)

This is a key role in the promotion of The Well and the successful candidate will have excellent verbal and written communication skills and be responsible for raising and following up with all funds to sustain and develop The Well, primarily through applications to Trusts and Foundations, and retaining and growing relationships with Church partners and individual supporters. The successful candidate will also be responsible for internal and external communications including website, social media, e-newsletters.

The candidate must be competent in using Microsoft Office, self-motivated and able to manage their own time and workload, keeping to tight funding and reporting deadlines.

GOR: As the successful candidate will be expected to contribute to the spiritual life of The Well, they will have a Christian Faith and be in agreement with the statement of faith.

After a successful trial period this is a permanent post.

If you are interested in this position, please email rho.yar@thewell.org.uk to request the job description and application instructions.

The Closing Date is 21st June 2023