The Well is recruiting!

Vacancy: Head of Women and Family Support
Hours: 24 hours per week
Salary: £33K-£37K FTE

At The Well, we know that true community resilience is built on connection. Our Head of Women and Family Support (HWF) plays a vital role walking alongside 125-150 women each year, creating safe spaces and access to long-term interventions that help combat isolation and promote integration. To maintain this important and lasting connection, we are looking for a dedicated leader to join our team.

Due to the nature of the work, this is a woman only post, recognised as a Genuine Occupation Requirement in Schedule 9, Part 1 of the Equality Act 2010

Key Responsibilities

- Sustain & Develop: Lead and grow support groups and opportunities primarily for women from Ethnic Minority (EM) backgrounds.
- Strategic Leadership: Contribute to the overall management, strategic development, and training at The Well as a key member of the management team.

What We Are Looking For

The candidate must be self-motivated, competent in using Google Workspace/office products, and able to manage their own time and workload, keeping to tight funding and reporting deadlines.

Faith Commitment
As the successful candidate will be expected to contribute to the spiritual life of The Well, they will have a Christian Faith and be in agreement with The Well's statement of faith.
